FROM THE DIRECTOR'S DESK...
Rev. Dean Gavaris

We're all on the same side?

What does the Atheist and Agnostic Pro-Life League, Liberals For Life, Libertarians for Life, Satanists for Life, Vegans for Life, Anarchists for life, and The Pro-Life Alliance of Gays and Lesbians have in common? Yep –they're all proudly pro-life! In England there are also Jews, Muslims and Sikhs for life.

There's even an umbrella group known as "Alternative Lifers". Their website states:

"This is a list for liberal, libertarian, moderate, feminist, non-Christian (atheist, agnostic, Wiccan, Jewish, Pagan, Buddhist...), gay, lesbian, bisexual, alternative-culture, and other pro-lifers who don't quite fit the traditional pro-life mold."

Well, aren't we all on the same side? It depends on what side of what issue you are discussing. If the issue is the killing of innocent babies, all these groups hold life to be sacred and abortion to be evil. If the issue is the author of Life – God Himself and His only resurrected Son, Jesus, then the answer to the above question should be a resounding "NO!"

You may be pro-life, but do you have eternal life?

This is a question Gateway asks in tract form and through our outreach. It simply is not enough to gather all pro-lifers together to oppose abortion because abortion is not the enemy – Satan is.

Our task is to convert the unconverted to the pro-life cause, not join hands with the unconverted in a cause. There's a big difference. Could the reason the pro-life movement spins it's wheels be that we have not brought the message to like minded Christians, but have embraced the world and used the worlds methods to defeat a satanic foe?

How many spiritual lives have been lost because we made 'saving a baby' the number one priority and not addressing the lostness of the woman's soul?

At Gateway we believe the gospel of life begins with the message of eternal life.

Questions People Ask:

Angela, age 40, writes from St. Louis:

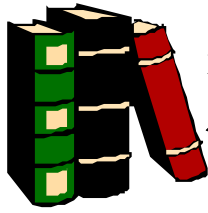

"My mother is a CPC volunteer back home and suggested to me for years that I might seek some counseling/bible study regarding my past abortion 20 years ago and how it continues to affect my life in many ways I'm unaware of. Are there any kind of groups I might fit into in the St. Louis area?"

Praise the Lord for her mom's continued encouragement. Are you and I as patient with folks as this mom was?

Cindy, married and age 23, writes from Pennsylvania:
"Thanks so much for caring — you do a great service to women in a scary situation."

A woman from Utica writes: "I am sending this email for my 16 year old pregnant granddaughter. She is in a home at this time due to not going to school. She is trying to get her G-E-D. I cannot take her in at this time as my mother(!) is living with me due to failing health. Is there any way she can get help and be removed from where she is?"

Amanda, age 14, from Fillmore, NY, after explaining her situation, writes: "I was just wondering how big a chance there could be that I am pregnant."
(She noted 'unsure' under the category, "Plans if Pregnant.")

REAL-LIFE STORIES

Eighteen year old Jasmine called Gateway seeking help with a place to live. She's pregnant and thankful for any help we could give her. Jasmine has three other children and was going to abort this baby but in her heart she knew she just couldn't do that. Her children are with her family. Jasmine came back after the initial visit and took an ultrasound which showed her baby to be about 12 weeks along. After the ultrasound and during the follow up the Lord allowed us plenty of time to talk and it was at this time that the gospel was shared. Jasmine had read the pamphlet about salvation that was given during our first visit. She said she was ready now to pray with me the sinners prayer. Shortly we expect that Jasmine will be accepted in one of the two maternity homes that she has applied to. We give glory to God and wait on His direction for her.

Marlene, age 28, came to Gateway in October of 2002. Her test was positive and she intends to carry to term. She said to Doris, the Gateway volunteer, that "she would not have had the first abortion if she had someone to talk to." We're glad the Lord brought her to us and that we were there to minister to her. Her baby was due in early June, 2003.

Selena walked into Gateway with a very low face and did not want to have any children ever!! While we talked, Barbara says, she seemed to change her mind. She was open to hear about God, and the forgiveness found in Jesus. We watched Harder Truth together. She changed her mind completely after viewing this and changed totally after seeing the ultrasound of her 17 week old unborn baby. I shared the gospel with her and she prayed to accept Jesus as Lord and Savior. A few days later after the ultrasound was read and signed by Dr. Arrunategui we gave her proof of pregnancy for her prenatal care appointment right downstairs on the second floor of this building!

Tamee-Kah, age 16, came to Gateway Irvington in late July. She was planning on aborting. She believed that her father would not allow her to have the child. Dee Dee showed her Harder Truth. She was very attentive and called it "horrible". Dee Dee shared the plan of salvation with her. She made a commitment to Christ and also stated that she was carrying the baby to term. Pray for Tamee-Kah. She is due in April of 2004.
